

Opening soon: The Carrick on Loch Lomond. Page 21

PHOTO: Eric Hepworth

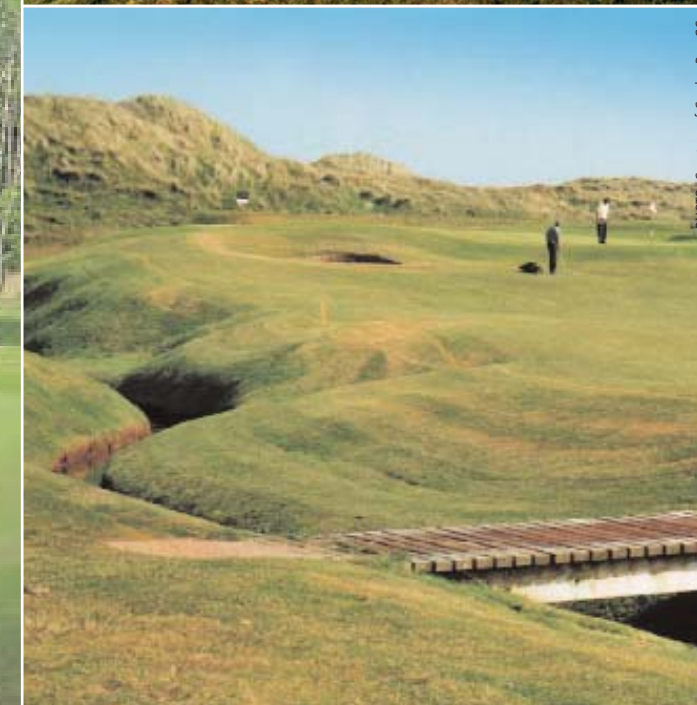

PHOTO: Courtesy of Cruden Bay GC

40

Royal Liverpool GC

In going back to Royal Liverpool for the first time in almost 40 years, The Open Championship is visiting a very different type of golf course from that which faced the players of previous eras. But has the course's modernisation removed its peculiar character?

46

Architect education

How does one learn how to design great golf courses? Training and development for golf architects takes many forms, but are some more effective than others? A number of the current EIGCA student members offer their thoughts

06 Tee Box

Seve Ballesteros' first UK design is the focus of our round-up of golf architecture news

25 The Player

Features that we love on old golf courses are too often criticised when built today, says current US Ryder Cup captain Tom Lehman

26 The Pioneer

Richard Goodale explores the legacy of Old Tom Morris. Was he the first great golf architect, or does history flatter him?

32 Family affair

Peter Harradine on his family's role at Bad Ragaz

34 Lessons from Mexico

Forrest Richardson tells of his experience building the Links at Las Palomas

37 Velvet revolution?

Are velvet bent grasses the solution for environmentally-friendly golf?

38 Cancun can?

David Pottage's holiday snapshots

52 On Site

GCA visits Pine Needles in North Carolina, the site for next year's US Women's Open, Dooks GC in Ireland and Golf de Saint-Germain outside Paris. Plus the first news from the site of The Renaissance Club at Archerfield, Tom Doak's maiden UK course

64 Holing Out

Paul Albanese explains what he learned using horses to rebuild bunkers

Sponsors

With thanks to all the organisations that support Golf Course Architecture, including our 12 primary sponsors for issue five:

Founded in 1985, Carrick Design Inc. has become recognised for developing some of the best golf courses in Canada and Europe. The physical layout of the site and maintaining traditional values of the game are two important qualities that guide and influence all designs. www.carrickdesign.com

Faldo Design is a leading international golf course architectural practice dedicated to designing outstanding golf courses. Established in 1991, it has completed projects in 12 different countries and is currently working in North America, Europe, the Middle East, the Caribbean and Asia-Pacific. www.nickfaldo.com

One of the largest multi-disciplinary golf architectural practices in Europe, and known throughout the world, Hawtree's painstaking approach to layout saves money, preserves the existing character of the site, and ensures the contentment of a wide variety of golfer. www.hawtree.co.uk

Established in 1992, Jeff Howes Golf Design continues to offer its clients a professional, innovative and top quality golf course design service. Central to its design philosophy is respecting a sites' natural attributes/history whilst striving to achieve a finished product which is both challenging to players of all levels and fun to play. www.jhgd.com

Kyle Phillips Golf Course Design has been appointed to design courses in more than 10 countries, including Kingsbarns Golf Links which has been recognised as one of the top 50 courses in the world. www.kylephillips.com

Niblick Golf Design is the result of a partnership between Graeme Webster and Brian Phillips, two of the most imaginative designers of golf courses in recent years. The Niblick Golf Design philosophy is to create an exiting golf course that fits the land, the eye and of course the budget. www.niblickgolfdesign.com

For 60 years, Wimberly Allison Tong and Goo (WATG) have not been following trends; they have been setting them, by designing hospitality, leisure and entertainment venues in over 150 countries worldwide. The firm's mission is to "responsibly create special environments that lift the spirit". From offices around the globe, we help clients to create the world's most successful destinations. www.watg.com

J. Michael Poellot Golf Designs is a full service golf course design firm with offices in Saratoga, California. Mike Poellot brings his over 30 years of creative design experience and personal involvement to every project... from concept to completion. www.poellotgolfdesigns.com

Rain Bird's sole focus since 1933 has been developing and manufacturing innovative irrigation products. Over 850 golf courses in 30 different countries in Europe benefit from the class-leading reliability and efficiency of Rain Bird PC-based control systems and sprinklers. Rain Bird's reputation, experience and expertise as the irrigation specialist are unmatched. www.rainbird.com

Ransomes Jacobsen Ltd is one of the leading manufacturers of golf course maintenance equipment, compact utility vehicles and golf cars. Based at Ipswich in Suffolk they distribute quality equipment across a territory encompassing Iceland to India. www.ransomesjacobsen.com

Robert Trent Jones II, one of the pre-eminent firms worldwide, invites you to share its passion for our great game. The Robert Trent Jones II team is committed to creating spaces of the earth, for the spirit. www.rtj2.com

Swan Golf Designs is a firm of international golf course architects working in some thirty countries from Iceland to Nigeria, from USA to China. The team of seven architects all in EIGCA membership undertake a full professional design service – conceptual, detailed, design and establishment together with planning consultancy – on new projects as well as renovation and restoration programmes on existing courses. www.swangolfdesigns.com