INTRODUCTION

GCA Green Pages 2023 will be published and distributed alongside the January 2023 issue of Golf Course Architecture magazine. This special supplement – now in its fifteenth year – represents an excellent low-cost opportunity for you to profile your organisation to a very large and engaged audience of Golf Course Architecture readers, which includes head greenkeepers/course superintendents, club managers/owners/operators and golf course developers.

GCA magazine is widely read in the golf industry (see box) and our website and social media channels continue to grow and are reaching a wider audience than ever before.

There are three levels of participation available within GCA Green Pages 2023, as outlined in this document. I hope these meet your promotional requirements, and thank you for your interest and support.

MORE ABOUT GCA

For over thirteen years, Golf Course Architecture has been the global authority on golf design and development. The GCA brand delivers readers with news and insights on everything from course design and agronomy, to the environmental impact of golf courses. Our coverage extends to every corner of the globe, from established golf markets in Europe and the USA to exciting emerging regions such as China and South America.

The Golf Course Architecture quarterly magazine is available in print or digital format. The first edition of each year comes with GCA Green Pages, an essential guide to suppliers to the industry, from architects and construction firms, to suppliers of seed, turf and golf course equipment, as well as consulting and other professional services.

These publications are complemented by our website at www.golfcoursearchitecture.net. Visitors can access the latest news and views, feature articles and supplier information, and sign up to receive content directly by email.
